Two 3 hour sessions per day

Thursday, July 27th

9 am - Joan Cech: Creating stained glass art.

Joan Cech will instruct both morning & afternoon sessions, on the basics of creating a stained glass mosaic: from safety procedures when working with glass, to creating a unique design. The glass will be heat set to a backer board, then grout will be applied to fill in the gaps. All will take home a finished piece

1 pm - Stained glass sessions continue with Joan Cech and the others assisting which include Annikka Klement and Sarah Juranek..

Friday, July 28th

9 am - Annikka Klement will offer a variety of creative activities along with Sarah Juranek.

1 pm: Angie Frier with Iris Prochaska will teach techniques with sculpey clay involving design. Each student will create a unique item out of clay that involves sculpting with a choice of designs or a figurine. The items can be taken home that day.

Monday, July 31st

9 am - Gabrielle Comte leads 2 sessions of Clay for the Day: Students will explore techniques in clay and may use found objects to add texture to their piece. Items made for this session must be fired & picked up later at Bone Creek Museum.

1 pm - Gabrielle Comte continues with clay. Students will be offered a variety of art activities as Sarah Juranek & Annikka Klement contribute their ideas & assist.

ARTWORK on view in LIBRARY in August

Art may be taken home the day of the course or at a later date depending on the drying time or firing time. Pottery and other items created in clay sessions will be claimed at Bone Creek museum at a later day to be announced at the time of the workshops.
